

SÉRAPHINE

Paris, 1883. In Montmartre, the Sacré-Cœur grows in a gigantic construction site on the hill. Séraphine, 12, is living a monotonous life with Jeanne, the grumpy seamstress who raises her, but decides to change her life. She has one obsession: to find out who her parents were. Accompanied by Mistigri, a street urchin she takes under her wing, Séraphine uncovers the secret of her origins. She finds the key to her own story in the struggles waged by the people of Montmartre.
